DUBES & OHLSON, - - - Proprietors

A choice offering from a choice herd, mostly the get of an up-to-date, modern breeding bull, and who is one of the Great Villager bred bulls of the times, a sire of winning Show Stock, and the getter of breeding stock of the most acceptable pattern.

---

If you are a prospective buyer, it will pay you to attend this sale because of the class of seed-stock that will be sold for the high dollar.

The writer is sure of his ground when he pens these words with regard to this consignment of Shorthorns. Dubes & Ohlson for their first sale are doing what the rank and file of the successful men in the business have always done—the selling of the get of a great herd bull—a bull who has trademarked his get with his own good qualities, and which represents seed of the highest quality for those who are in need of such seed. This bull is Village Golden, a great bull from any viewpoint, a bull whose pedigree is in a class by itself, a pedigree that is remarkable for its great bulls, everyone which have been head-liners in their day, and which can be classified as the greatest breed improving bulls of their time. Village Golden is indeed a well bred bull. A glance at that formidable array of great bulls in his pedigree is all the proof that is needed to convince that it is a pedigree that has come through careful hands, a pedigree that has been builded with material that will withstand the ravages of time. In view of the fine qualities of Village Golden as an individual and as a sire, and as a bull who is capable of transmitting his good qualities to his off-spring, will not the prospective buyer profit by being at this sale, to help himself to seed whose attractiveness cannot be disputed. Breeders, and farmers, therefore, will find that this auction will furnish an exceptional opportunity for right investments. Dubes & Ohlson are reliable. They raise the kind of Shorthorns that will do good in other hands. They want the public to know that this is their big business—the raising of good Shorthorns, to sell to their neighbors or to anyone who wishes the right kind. Look through the catalog. Note the many fine Village Golden heifers, and the good females with his calves or that are bred to him. Some good bulls, too, several very choice bulls by him. Come if you can.

FRANCIS T. MARTIN,
of The Breeder's Gazette.
